FST BIOMETRICS TAPS YARON ZUSSMAN AS CEO OF FST BIOMETRICS AMERICA

Security and IT Industries Veteran to Support U.S. Market Expansion of Leading Biometric Identification Solutions

RISHON LEZION, ISRAEL (April 8, 2015) – FST Biometrics, the leading biometric identification solutions provider, has announced the appointment of Yaron Zussman to CEO of FST Biometrics America. Yaron recently joined the company as an industry veteran with over 15 years of experience in the Information Technology and Security industries.

“We are excited to welcome Yaron to the FST Biometrics team,” said Aharon Zeevi Farkash, Founder and CEO of FST Biometrics. “Yaron’s past experience at DVTEL, from the startup phase to a leader in the IP Security enterprise market, makes him a natural fit for FST Biometrics. We are confident that Yaron’s strong operational and business development background will serve as a critical advantage for FST as the company continues to expand.”

Over 11 years at DVTEL – most recently as the Vice President of Sales for the Americas and Global Accounts – Yaron led sales efforts with enterprise customers and built partnerships with value added resellers (VARs), security consultants and technology partners. Yaron previously served as a Management Executive for NovaSoft Information Technology.

“Joining FST Biometrics was the natural next step for me,” remarked Yaron. “The company has a great team in place and is striving to become the market leader in biometric identification solutions thanks to its In Motion Identification technology. I look forward to playing a growth and development role at the helm of FST Biometrics America.”
